

New Catholic Parish Started In Carson Area

A new Catholic parish in the Carson area now is holding three Masses each Sunday and has just begun a drive to get funds for a church building, according to the Rev. Frederick Callahan, pastor.

The new parish, known as St. Philomena's, is now meeting at the Labor Union Hall, 522 W. Carson St., with Masses at 8, 9:30 and 11 a.m. each Sunday morning. The pastor's office now is at St. Peter and Paul's, Wilmington, but will be moved to a rectory in the area within a few days.

A 6.8 acre site on Main St., between Carson and 220th Sts. has been purchased for the congregation's use. A pledge drive for the church building and a school began Sunday and architects now are working on drawings. Construction is expected to begin within a few months.

Within the new parish is the area between 190th St. and Sepulveda Blvd. from Normandie Ave. to Wilmington Ave. It includes parts of four old parishes which have grown greatly—Nativity, Torrance; St. Peter and Paul's, Wilmington; Holy Family, Wilmington; and St. Anthony of Padua, Gardena.

The new pastor, a native of Worcester, Mass., has been at Our Lady of Malibu Church, Malibu. He has been in California for the past 18 years.

LOYALTY IS THEME FOR LUTHERANS

A number of meetings are planned at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, 330 Palos Verdes Blvd., as the church observes "Loyalty Month," according to The Rev. Lyle B. Gansel, pastor.

The Adult Study Class has been meeting each Wednesday at 8:35 p.m. All those interested in the teachings of the Lutheran Church are invited to attend the third session next Wednesday.

The next Confirmation Class is scheduled for Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

Next Thursday at 4:30 p.m. the members of the Crusader League, composed of seventh and eighth graders, will assemble for their bi-monthly meeting.

The Hi-League for teenagers meets every Sunday at 7:07 p.m.

Bill Carle Film Set at EUB Church

Sacred singer Bill Carle is featured in a new 30-minute sound and color film, "Bill Carle Sings," which will be shown at Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church, 3333 W. 174th St., Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

According to pastor Monrad Bergesen, the film presents the music and testimony of Carle, backed by Ralph Carmichael's orchestra. One of the highlights of the film is a pictorial interpretation of the hymn, "How Great Thou Art."

Dedication Set By Lutherans

Dedication services will be held at Ascension Lutheran Church, 18002 Prairie Ave., next Sunday. A new chapel and parish hall, seating 250, includes Sunday school rooms, kitchen and church offices. The majority of the work was volunteered by members, who started the project Jan. 1.

The new building, located across the street from Perry Elementary School, is the first unit proposed by the congregation of four acres of property. The entire project is financed through the Mission Board of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Volunteer labor accounted for a saving of nearly 17,000 on the building.

Ascension, organized March 4, 1955, has a total baptized membership of 280. Services have been held in a renovated house on the property since July of 1955. Attendance has averaged 170 at double services. 180 children are enrolled in the Sunday School.

Three services will be held this Sunday. The dedication rites will be performed by the Rev. Lloyd C. Warneke, pastor of the church, who will also deliver the sermon at 10 a.m. The Sunday school chorus and the senior choir will sing.

At 3:30 p.m., the Rev. E. Deirker, circuit visitor, and pastor of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Ingewood, will preach the sermon. Special music will be sung by the choir. The organizing missionary of Ascension, The Rev. C. Kjergaard, of Ferris, Calif., will speak at the evening service. The public is invited to participate in the festivities and to be guests at open house following each of the services.

Paul's Words Named Topic For Sunday

Paul's words in Romans (8:6), "To be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace," constitute the Golden Text of the Lesson-Sermon, "Mortals and Immortals" in the Christian Science churches, Sunday.

This thought in the Golden Text is amplified by citations from The Psalms where the Psalmist prays, "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. . . . And let the beauty of the Lord our God be upon us." "As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness." (90:12,17-17:15)

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy correlative passages declare, "Men and women of riper years and larger lessons ought to ripen into health and immortality, instead of lapsing into darkness or gloom." "Let us then shape our views of existence into loveliness, freshness, and continuity, rather than into age and blight." (pp. 248, 246.)

Youth Gospel Crusade Will Give Program

A blend of nature films, vivid object lessons, and other features will be presented in a brand new program each night by the South Bay Baptist Church, 4565 Sharynne Lane, tonight and tomorrow night at 7:30 p.m.

High-lighted on each program will be a stingspiration, audience participation contest, Scripture illustrated by "black light" oil painted Bible scenes. Admission is free at all meetings.

The director of these meetings, Rev. Henry L. Harms, represents Youth Gospel Crusade, Inc., a missionary organization with headquarters in Wheaton, Ill., and whose field staff serve churches of all evangelical denominations from coast to coast.

Rev. Harms saw the alarming rise of juvenile delinquency and gave his life to what he terms "reaching youth and adults who have not been touched by regular church channels and who have never heard nor seen a clear presentation of the gospel in interesting terms which they can understand." Mr. Harms brings his audience pictures from mountains, forest, and jungles pointing out analogies between natural and spiritual worlds.

Dr. J. C. Brumfield, together with the friends and members of the South Bay Baptist Church, extend a community-wide invitation to attend.

Presbyterians Will Hear of 'Faithful God'

The Rev. Truman M. Jolley will preach on "God is Faithful" at First Presbyterian Church, 1842 Gardena Blvd. Junior choir for grades three through six, directed by Florence Jolley, will sing "Jesus, Joyance of My Heart" by Ahle Luther Sterling, tenor, will sing "Recessional" by DeKon. A trumpet trio, James Roberts, Dale James, and Karl Sullivan, will play "God, the Omnipotent."

The senior choir, with Grace Gravesen, soprano soloist, will sing "Prayer to Jesus" by Oldroyd. Members of the junior choir are Michael Buck, Keith Daventport, Stephen Davis, Kathy Folkrod, Susan Folkrod, Robert Gulliver, Carl Hackler, Kenneth Hackler, Karen Hanna, Jackie Harmon, Cheryl Hill, Neil Hoffman, Jimmie James, Michael Long, Karen Lund, Linda McCombs, Carol McDade, Connie Mauck, Kathleen Parker, Danny Scott, Diana Rosacker, William Russell, Michael Tardaguila, Janice Wilkens, and Kathy Zarwell. Mother assistants are Mrs. Virginia Mauck, Mrs. Ray Hackler and Mrs. Thomas Hill.

At 7 p.m. Westminster Fellowship, Jim Hoffmann, president, will sponsor the film "Martin Luther." All members and friends are invited.

ANNIVERSARY PLANNERS. . . Looking over some of the goods which will be sold at the Golden Jubilee Bazaar which will be held this Saturday and Sunday at St. James Catholic Church, Redondo Beach, are some of the committeemen for the parish. Shown are Mrs. James Larkins, Mrs. John Appel, co-chairman; the Rev. J. A. O'Gorman, Mrs. Clarence Lenorth, and Mrs. Wilfred Hoeltgen.

Hold 50th Anniversary Rites

Final touches have been made in anticipation of St. James Parish Golden Jubilee Bazaar Saturday and Sunday. Even though the history of the church goes back more than 60 years, the present church was officially dedicated in 1906.

General co-chairman are John Blake, Mrs. John Appel, and Charles Kelly.

They will be assisted by James McLaughlin, treasurer; Mrs. Robert P. Herzog, secretary; Robert Reuter and Richard Wurm, award chairman; Mrs. Charles Kelly, dinner chairman; William Burch, floor plan manager; William Farber, merchant solicitation; Joseph Drovich, PA system and music; Philip Hoffman and John Appel, booth chairman; Mario Gamm, property chairman; Paul Reams, sign chairman; and Lorenz Otto, traffic control.

To Man Booths Manning the 23 booths are Mr. and Mrs. William Gass, Mrs. Buster Sebben, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nagle, Mr. Paul Barnard, Mrs. John Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lord, Mr. Gus Franchi, Mrs. Clarence Lenorth, Mrs. Raymond Brown, Mrs. Rocco Volpi, Mrs. W. J. Hoeltgen, Mr. Herbert Gulick, Mr. Joseph Kravetz, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kavanaugh, Mr. James Branley, Mr. John Cunningham, Mr. John Lynch, Miss Diana Brown, Mr. Louis Voita, Mr. Ray Crofteen, Mr. Peter Dignan, Mr. Richard Staal, James Ebben, Miss Betty Hallmark.

Attendance prizes will be given away both days of the bazaar at various times throughout the day. Doors will open at noon, both Saturday and Sunday. There will be no admittance charge and the affair is open to the general public.

New Church Planned Proceeds will go towards the building of a sorely needed larger church to accommodate the increasing population. At present there are well over 1500 families in the parish boundaries and new parishioners are added all the time.

The present church has a seating capacity for 300. Consequently eight masses are celebrated every Sunday to take care of all the parishioners. It is hoped, through the success of the bazaar, plans will proceed to build a new church with a seating capacity of around 1000.

Park View Lutherans Collecting Clothes

During November Park View Lutheran Church, is cooperating with the appeal to some 11,000 Lutheran Congregations throughout the United States and Canada to contribute clothing to the Lutheran World Relief Thanksgiving Clothing Appeal.

This clothing will be distributed among refugees and others in Korea, Formosa, Hong Kong, Jordan, Syria, Yugoslavia, Austria and Germany. Pastor Oelschlaeger explained that good, clean, useable clothing may be brought to the local church any time up to Thanksgiving.
